

IT TAKES TWO: A VIOL SPECTACULAR

Featuring The Marais Project and Elysian Fields

3.30pm
Sunday 29th
January, 2017

The Independent
269 Miller St,
North Sydney

IT TAKES TWO: A VIOL SPECTACULAR

Featuring The Marais Project and Elysian Fields

THE MARAIS PROJECT

Belinda Montgomery – soprano
Tommie Andersson – lute
Jennifer Eriksson - viola da gamba

ELYSIAN FIELDS

Matt Keegan - saxophones
Matt McMahon - piano
Jennifer Eriksson – electric viola da gamba Siebe Pogson – bass
Finn Ryan - percussion

3.30pm Sunday 29th January, 2017

The Independent, 269 Miller St, North Sydney

Tickets - $47 adult, $30 concession/under 30s, $22 student, and $16 child;
bookings ph 02 9955 3000;
on-line at: <http://www.theindependent.org.au/>

Ticket price includes afternoon tea, which is served from 2.30pm as part of The Independent Theatre's
"Prelude in T" concert series

A truly special event bringing together the old and modern version of one of the world's most ancient of instruments, the viola da gamba.

In the first half The Marais Project led by Jenny Eriksson will present fine early music for voice, lute and viola da gamba.

In the second half, Jenny's electric viola da gamba ensemble, Elysian Fields will take to the stage featuring some of Australia's finest jazz players.

www.maraisproject.com.au